

Students join honor societies

Thirty-two students were inducted into the National Spanish and French Honor societies at Glacier High School.

Several other language awards were given to students including outstanding senior awards in French and Spanish.

Kaitlyn Anderson received the Outstanding Senior in French award. Anderson is a French Club officer, a member of the French national honor society — Société Honoraire de Français — and has traveled abroad.

Keele Nouqué is the recipient of the Outstanding Senior in Spanish award. Nouqué is a member of the Spanish Club, an inductee of the Spanish honor society — Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica, a peer tutor and has studied abroad for a year in Spain.

English teacher Chris Adamcyk was honored with the Amici Linguarum “Friend of Languages” award for showing exemplary support of international language learning, teaching and culture in the Flathead Valley.

Recipients of this award are selected by the students. Adamcyk was chosen for his passion to explore the world through travel.

Awards and the French and Spanish honor societies inductees are affiliated with the American Association of Teachers of French and the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese.
